

KINGDOM OF CAMBODIA

NATION-RELIGION-KING

ROYAL CONSULATE GENERAL OF CAMBODIA
TO ZURICH OF SWITZERLAND

Visa Exemptions

Nationals of Brunei

who hold Diplomatic and Official passport may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 14 days.

Nationals of the Lao-PDR and Malaysia

who hold Diplomatic, Official and regular passport may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 30 days.

Nationals of Myanmar and Vietnam

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 30 days.

Nationals of Singapore

who hold Diplomatic, Official and regular passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 30 days.

Nationals of Thailand

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 30 days.

Nationals of The Philippines

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 30 days. Those who hold Regular passports may stay for no more than 21 days.

Nationals of India

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 60 days.

Nationals of Bulgaria and Hungary

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 90 days.

Nationals of Cuba and Slovakia

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for duration of their mission.

Nationals of the People's Republic of China (except Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and Macau)

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to Cambodia without visa and may stay for no more than 30 days.

Nationals of Republic of Korea (South Korea)

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to the Cambodia without a visa and may stay for no more than 60 days.

Nationals of Indonesia

who hold Diplomatic and Official passports may travel to the Cambodia without a visa and may stay for no more than 14 days.